Wrots a book called "The Idle Warrior" which he tried to have published and which was about the personnel of MACS W 444 Wumber 1.

SCHWINGHAMMER said that he believes THORMLEY lives in New Orleans and since he knew OSWALD, he thought the possibility existed that they could have gotten together subsequent to their military discharge. He did not know THORMLEY's address but furnished the following possible sources of this information:

- 1. Reserve records at the Marine Record Center, Glenview Maval Air Station, Chicago, Illinois
- BUD BINCOE, employed by the Retail Credit Company, Banta Anna or Fullerton, California

It is not known to the Minnenpolis Office if THORNLEY has been previously interviewed or if the Office of Origin is interested in the results of such an interview. Accordingly, copies of this airtel are being furnished to the Chicago, Los Angeles, and New Orleans Offices for the convenience of the Office of Origin should the location and interview of THORNLEY be desired. Chicago, Los Angeles, and New Orleans should take no action on the basis of dis communication valess requested to do so by Dallas.
